

Help the clownfish find the anemone!

Clownfish and anemone have a very special relationship in the ocean. They help each other to survive. We call this MUTUALISM. Clownfish live in the tentacles of the anemone for protection from predators. Clownfish clean harmful parasites off of and help circulate water around the anemone.

